The JCC Announces New Chris Taft Basketball Academy

Chris Taft, a former Pitt and NBA player, brings his expertise to the Jewish Community Center of Greater Pittsburgh with the newly organized Chris Taft Basketball Academy at the JCC.

Taft will be the lead instructor in:

- The Harry B. Davis Basketball Clinic for kids in grades 3 to 8 starting November 6
- Chris Taft Basketball Camps - Winter Break and June programs
- New winter season basketball classes
- Private basketball lessons

Taft, originally from Brooklyn, New York, in 2004 won the Big East Conference Rookie of the Year Award in his freshman season at the University of Pittsburgh and set the all-time Pittsburgh season record for field goals made as a freshman (162). Taft also earned Third Team All Big East Honors as a freshman. In the NBA, Taft played for the Golden State Warriors.

For more information, please contact Alex Speck, (412) 521-8011, ext. 249, or email aspect@jccpgh.org, or visit JCCPGH.org.
